FALL LUNCHEON

Tuesday - October 22, 2019
Ball Room – Alumni Conference Center
11:00 a.m. Social; Noon - Lunch

Our Fall Luncheon speaker will be Dr. Susan Fiorito
Director of the Jim Moran School of Entrepreneurship

Dr. Susan S. Fiorito is the founding director of the Jim Moran School of Entrepreneurship. She also serves as a Jim Moran professor of entrepreneurship and Entrepreneur in Residence. Fiorito manages all activities of the new school, the staff, faculty and Entrepreneurs in Residence and oversees the development of curricula. She serves on the Academic Deans' Council and reports directly to the Provost.

Florito has the business acumen needed to lead entrepreneurs of tomorrow. She began teaching in the FSU College of Human Sciences in 1990 in the Department of Retail Merchandising and Product Development. In 2012, she began teaching entrepreneurship in the College of Business.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Another beginning! Can you believe it? A new year is dawning for the University and for the Association of Retired Faculty (ARF). We are so fortunate in ARF to have dedicated retirees who enjoy planning and producing interesting events for the membership. We also have members who keep us connected with the community and each other. Let me thank our Board members at this time for their service to ARF and its members.

Jim Melton is serving as Past President. I'd like to offer my sincere thanks to Jim for his leadership and the mentoring provided to me in my year as President-Elect. He has been a valuable support. Carolyn Shackelford is the President-Elect and National Liaison to AROHE this year. You will see her frequently as she leads the planning for the two luncheons and the barbecue. Our grateful appreciation is extended to Tom McCaleb who continues as Treasurer and Jill Adams who continues as Secretary. Larry Gerber and Tom Knowles are serving in the two member-at-large positions. These named are the elected officers of the Association.

The Committees are appointed by the President. They carry out major responsibilities for the work of the Association. Tom Hart serves as Editor of the Retiree Journal. This year an Editorial Board has been appointed to assist him with the Journal. Tom Knowles and Flo Ashby are serving on this Editorial Board. Betty Serow is new in her committee appointment as Membership Chair. Returning committee chairs are Freddie Grooms-McLendon and Genevieve Scott on Scholarship; Anne Rowe as Liaison to FSU Library; Calvin Zongker as Historian/Archivist; Jenny and John Bryant, and Ivy Mitchell as Friendship Co-Chairs; Esther and Tom Harrison are Memorials Committee co-chairs; ARF Past President's Council is Carol Darling and Max Carraway serves as Special Advisor. Fancy Funk has a committee appointment with the Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education (AROHE).

You will find many ways to become involved with ARF. The scheduled events—the Fall and Spring Luncheons and the Barbecue—are informative and entertaining. They also give you an opportunity to spend time with your friends and colleagues. In the fall and spring semesters we also plan some tours of university and community sites of interest to our membership.

Membership News

The Association of Retired Faculty (ARF) of Florida State University extends an invitation to retired faculty and administrative staff members to join our association. Retirement is a wonderful time to keep growing and learning. ARF allows you to stay connected with your friends and colleagues at FSU—so join us in the Association.

Those eligible for membership include retired faculty and administrative staff members of the Florida State University and its direct support organizations. Spouses of members and of deceased members are included in this eligibility. In addition to retired faculty and staff, ARF welcomes into membership (1) individuals who have rendered outstanding service to the University and (2) retired faculty members (and spouses) from a senior institution of higher learning who has become a resident of the Tallahassee area. If you have someone to recommend for membership, please contact me and I will be happy to follow up with them.

Your membership dues are payable annually. The fiscal year runs from June 1 to May 31. The dues are $10 per individual or $15 per household. They are payable to ARF and can be mailed to our Treasurer Tom McCaleb at 3037 Godfrey Place, Tallahassee, FL 32309.

Embrace and enjoy ARF's vitality. Join, or renew, your membership NOW! Enjoy the Fall luncheon in October, the Barbecue in March and the Spring Luncheon in May. A special invitation will be extended to all who join the association to the President's House for a Holiday Reception in December.

Betty Serow, Chair
Membership Committee
bettyserow@yahoo.com

Friendship News

As the Friendship Chairs of ARF, we contact our members, spouses, and their parents who are residing in Tallahassee when health issues arise.

We appreciate your help in contacting us, so we can send cards from ARF, make personal visits, or notify other members of our extended family to provide that special care.

If you know of anyone who needs our attention, please contact John or Jenny Bryant at (850) 385-6610 - email: vbryant42@me.com, or Ivy Mitchell at (850) 286-3026 - email: ivymitchell@comcast.net.

Nominations: ARF Board of Directors

Please nominate anyone who might be interested in becoming a member of the ARF Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee will meet in January to determine the slate of officers for 2019-2020. Elected positions that are open include President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and At-Large Board Member. A nominee needs to be a member in good standing of the Association who has agreed to be a candidate for office. If you have any questions about the roles of Board Members, please check our website:

<http://retiredfaculty.fsu.edu>.

Send your nominations by December 1 to Jim Melton
Past President and Nominating Committee Chair:
melton2757@comcast.net

FROM THE PRESIDENT ELECT

The Association of Retired Faculty (ARF) holds three social functions each year—the Fall Luncheon, the Spring Barbecue, and the Spring Luncheon. In addition, tours of university and community programs and facilities are conducted each year for the membership to enjoy. We are appreciative of the members who participate and support our annual programs with their dues and their registrations to these events.

I would like to thank the members of the Association who are serving on the program planning committee with me this year.

Special thanks to Betty Lou Joanos, Bob Spivey and Evelyn Shelley for their assistance as we plan the events for the year.

The Fall Luncheon will take place on Tuesday, October 22 in the Alumni Center Ballroom. A "meet and greet" reception begins at 11 a.m.; the lunch will follow at noon. The program in the Fall will be presented by Dr. Susan Fiorito, Director of the Jim Moran School of Entrepreneurship. The cost of the luncheon is $25 per person.

During the Spring Semester, we will be planning the Spring Barbecue at the Seminole Reservation on Wednesday, March 11 at 11:30 a.m. The cost of the barbecue will be $10 per person. The program will include deans and students from the Presidential Scholars and the Fellows Society programs.

The Spring Luncheon will be held in the Alumni Center Ballroom on Tuesday, May 5. The speaker for the spring luncheon will be Terry Coonan, the Executive Director of the Center for the Advancement of Human Rights. As with the Fall Luncheon, this one begins with a reception at 11 a.m. followed by lunch and the program. The cost of the luncheon is $25 per person. We hope you will join us for these special programs. They are always a good time to learn as well as enjoy the companionship of your friends and colleagues.

Academic Excellence

By Provost Sally McRorie

Florida State University is starting its Fall 2019 semester with great excitement!

FSU continues its upward momentum across many fronts. As you may have seen, FSU is now ranked as the #26 best public university in the nation by U.S. News & World Report. We expect to reach our long-standing goal of moving into the top 25 when the new rankings are released in September.

FSU has received significant recognition for our leadership in student success. In fact, FSU was just recognized this year for the highest 4-year graduation rate in the history of the State University System! Our most recent rate of 72% ranks FSU #8 in the United States among public universities. This is especially impressive when you consider that the national average for six-year graduation rates is still under 60%. We are especially proud that we have increased our graduation rates across our diverse student body, and now all of our student populations graduate at virtually the same high rates.

AROHE

Transforming Retirement

Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education

Florida State University renewed its institutional membership in the Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education (AROHE) in the summer. AROHE's membership includes about one hundred institutions encompassing nearly 100,000 individuals...which includes YOU. Fancy Funk has a committee appointment with AROHE; Carolyn Shackelford, who is the ARF President-Elect, is the National Liaison to AROHE for FSU.

AROHE highlights programs that are engaging our members and member organizations nationwide. They advocate for, educate, and serve campus-based organizations for retired faculty and staff. It is a resource we use with success at ARF. We are pleased that our programs and activities are shared with our fellow AROHE members.

You can find information about AROHE by going to their website: www.arohe.org The Newsletters provide the most current information about the activities of the association.

Once again FSU was recognized for our globalization and international education efforts, receiving two of the highest national awards in higher education for this work. We have also expanded our research portfolio across the disciplines, including increasing research expenditures to their highest levels in FSU history.

All of this great news has made FSU an even more attractive place to work and study. We received a record 60,000 applications from prospective undergraduate students, including applications from nearly 40 countries around the world. We are also welcoming 126 new faculty to FSU, and these new Seminoles will be in departments and colleges across campus. Let's be sure to welcome all of these new colleagues with great enthusiasm and help continue the great success at FSU!

Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

remembering "Sandy"

By Carolyn Shackelford

Tell me about yourself! Sound familiar? Whether student, staff, or FSU Faculty, this was your invitation to engage in conversation with former FSU President, "Sandy" D'Alemberte.

Following Sandy's death this past May, hundreds of family, friends, and colleagues attended various activities celebrating the life of our loved and respected past President. Much has been written about Sandy's lifetime accomplishments. Television networks and newspapers continue to pay tribute to Sandy's tireless efforts in the academic, political and legal arenas.

Friends and colleagues of Sandy have testified as to his boundless energy, infinite ideas, and broad vision during his terms as Dean of the College of Law and FSU President. Many current members of our Association of Retirees were Faculty and Administrative Staff during Sandy's FSU tenure, but learned for the first time of his involvement in and commitment to the disciplines of International Law and Human Rights.

Sandy's FSU Campus family loved his smile, admired his bowties, and were beneficiaries of his dedication to meet employee needs and witnessed his "come true" visions for campus beautification. We shared his efforts to acquire the Ringling Museum. We attended the Seven Days of Opening Nights Festivals. We participated in some of the first tours of the National High Magnetic Lab. We were present at the start-up of the Medical School. We cheered during the Homecoming Parade when Sandy and wife, Patsy, happily waved as they pedaled a tandem bike down College Avenue.

The Master Craftsman Program, which Sandy championed, paved the way for students to establish an interest in and develop skills necessary to create various forms of art, personalized benches, lifelike statues, and to design for the Florida State University stained glass project located in the Dodd Hall Werkmeister Reading Room. Artistic pieces in this room will serve as reminders of our heritage and as statements for future generations.

These, and our engaging conversations, are part of our special memories of President "Sandy". We know that Sandy's retirement years were filled with travel and teaching. He continued to share his love of the law and dedication to Florida State University at home and abroad.

And don't forget, He was a former Boy Scout!

ARF MEMBERS PARTICIPATE IN THE

1st National Science Foundation Micro-Spiral Methodology Workshop

By

Fanchon F. Funk, Edith G. Davis, Penny J. Gilmer

Association of Retired Faculty and Staff members, Drs. Penny Gilmer and Fanchon Funk were selected participants and presenters at the First National Science Foundation Micro-Spiral Methodology Workshop May 9-10, 2019. The workshop was hosted at the Al Lawson Jr. Multipurpose Center, Florida A&M University, Tallahassee, Florida. Dr. Edith Davis planned and served as Chair of the Workshop, which attracted over 200 science educators, community leaders and stakeholders in education from Florida and other states.

This highly energized workshop began with 25 three- and four-year old students from the Brownville Prep School, Rita Brown, Director, singing the “Micro-Spiral Planet Earth Song,” by Dr. Edith Davis. The FAMU DRS School also performed this song later in the day, which was just incredible. The attendees were speechless.

Dr. Edith Davis, Professor, Micro-Spiral Method, Author

Dr. Edith Davis is an assistant professor at Florida A&M University where she serves as Science Education Coordinator of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and Earth & Space Sciences. She serves as National Chair of Science Education for the prestigious Association of Teacher Educators. Davis is also the Founder and CEO for the STEM Global Institute, Inc., the S.G.I. Scholar Foundation and is the First African - American Female Geophysicist, USA.

What is the Micro-Spiral Method?

The basic concept of the Micro-Spiral curriculum is one in which there is an iterative revisiting of topics or themes throughout the course. The Micro-Spiral curriculum is not simply a repetition of a topic taught; it requires a deeper understanding of the course material, with each encounter of course materials building on the previous topic. This provides for increased competence of students.

How did this method for learning get started?

In 2004, Dr. Davis was introduced to Dr. Hilda Taba, the creator of the first Spiral Curriculum for the content area of Social Studies. Based on research, Dr. Davis came to the conclusion that this is how we really learn. She created the first Micro-Spiral Curriculum for Science Education and a mnemonic to help in the transfer of scientific concepts, knowledge and skills into the left as well as the right side of the brain.

Dr. Davis has dedicated her life to the research and the perfecting of the Micro-Spiral Method. Her research has revealed that the Micro-Spiral Method can assist in overcoming two major problems in educational systems worldwide: absenteeism and the loss of instructional time. The Micro-Spiral Method overcomes these two major problems for educating future generations by allowing the students a minimum of three structured opportunities for learning concepts, knowledge and skills. An illustration of Micro-Spiral of Concepts is noted in this article.

Dr. Davis' research has proven that the Micro-Spiral Method for the transfer of concepts, knowledge and skills does help in the retention and application of these concepts.

The most dramatic demonstration of the effectiveness of the Micro-Spiral Method was when African American students' state science scores increased by 45 percent after receiving concepts, knowledge, and skills through the Micro-Spiral Method.

Dr. Davis received two National Science Foundation Grants totaling over $550,000 to disseminate and test the effectiveness of the Micro-Spiral Method in transferring scientific concepts, knowledge and skills.

Dr. Leonard Haynes, senior advisor to the Under Secretary of Education, Washington D. C. attended to learn more about the Micro-Spiral Method and to serve as a keynote speaker.

Dr. Caroline Leaf, a world-renowned neuroscientist and the lead keynote speaker, enthusiastically endorsed Dr. Davis' work on the Micro-Spiral Method and her book: How We Really Learn: The Micro-Spiral Method (MSM).

The media community was present at the workshop and captured the essence of the NSF-sponsored Micro-Spiral Workshop and attendee comments, disseminating the information across various media platforms.

Representatives from the National Association of Teacher Educators were Dr. Fanchon Funk and Sheila Bolin, Florida; Dr. Elsa Price, Alabama and Dr. Tammie Brown, Mississippi, each of whom was a workshop presenter. Dr. Funk also served as a member of the workshop planning committee.

ARF Journal Editorial

Currently, the ARF Retiree Journal is developed by the Editor with supervision by the President. The Journal is a key communication tool for ARF. It would be advantageous to have more members involved in the development of the publication. The current President has produced many wonderful ideas for articles to be included in the publication. This task seems to be better suited to an Editorial Board whose task would be to do just that.

Thus, I will appoint an Editorial Board to work with the Editor in producing the ARF Retiree Journal. The duties of the Editorial Board will be to:

1. Identify new topics for issues;
2. Attract new authors and submissions;
3. Review submitted manuscripts; and,
4. Advise on Journal policy and scope.

The President will appoint 3 members to serve on the Editorial Board for a term of a year. Reappointment to an extended term is possible. The Board will work with the Editor of the Journal in producing the 3 issues of the publication.

According to the Bylaws, the President will continue to supervise the Editor of the ARF Retiree Journal and others to establish dates for the submission of articles and publication of the ARF Retiree Journal (ARF Bylaws, Roles and Responsibility of President, page 6).

ARF Membership Policy

Effective with the by-laws that were adopted three years ago, ARF's fiscal year is now defined as June 1-May 31. New memberships and membership renewals received anytime between these dates apply only to the current fiscal year. For example, if you join ARF for the first time, or rejoin ARF after a lapse or renew your membership at any time after June 1, 2019, and before May 31, 2020, the membership is valid until May 31, 2020.

Because our accounting system is not very sophisticated, based as it is on a simple Excel spreadsheet, it is not possible to accept new memberships or renewals for the next fiscal year in advance. In other words, you will not be able to join ARF for 2020-2021 or renew your membership for 2020-2021 prior to June 1, 2020.

This raises the issue of members who make multiple payments during the year. Because of the above policy on advance renewals, these overpayments cannot be applied to the following fiscal year. A number of years ago, the ARF Board addressed the question of overpayments and multiple payments during a fiscal year,

The Board adopted a policy against refunding overpayments or multiple payments of membership dues. This decision was made because of the accounting challenges involved given our simple accounting system and the mailing costs. Instead these overpayments and multiple payments are treated as donations to ARF. Keep in mind, however, that because we are not a 501(c) 3 organization, these donations are not tax-deductible.

If you are ever in doubt as to whether you have paid dues for the current year, please do not hesitate to contact me by email to inquire. It takes very little time and effort on my part to check your status and to respond to you, and unless I am out of town and away from my records, I will respond quite promptly. My email address is tmccaleb@fsu.edu, and I'm always happy to hear from you and to answer any questions or address any problems you might have about ARF. I prefer to communicate by email for those members not having access to email, my telephone number is (850) 933-7653.
